Special Awards: March 2024			Notes for Awards Presentation
Award	Last year Keepsake maintained?	This year 2024 Recipients
Best Newcomer (Voucher)	No	Archie Davies	Since joining Harriers last year this athlete has thrown himself into competition at every opportunity, competing in the Cheshire Track & Field Grand Prix and Youth Development League. He was selected to represent Cheshire at the Indoor Sportshall regional and national finals and has continued to shine over the winter indoor season, winning silver in the long jump and gold in both the 60m and shot at the Northern Indoor Championships. So please put your hands together for the winner of our Best Newcomer award, Archie Davies.
Most Improved Athlete (Voucher)	No	Jake Rowley	This athlete has worked tirelessly for a number of years to improve his 800m pace and it has paid off. His new PB achieved in August 2023 of 2min 53.9sec is nearly 4 seconds faster than his 2024 PB, breaking his own club record. Our Most Improved Athlete award goes to Jake Rowley.
Most Promising Athlete (Voucher)	No	Ben Hunsley	This athlete has gone from strength to strength over the last year.  In the 2023 Cheshire Track & Field Championships he won: Gold - 75m hurdles Gold - High Jump Gold - Long Jump Silver - 200m Bronze - Discus  He also competed in the Trafford AC Pentathlon in Sept 2023, setting a new Club Record of 1565 points, an improvement of 500 points on the previous year. He competed in all 4 of the Cheshire Grand Prix meetings last year winning overall gold for U13 boys and gaining 112 points. This was the highest number of points by any athlete across all categories.  Our winner of the Most Promising Athlete award goes to Ben Hunsley, who unfortunately can't be here tonight as he's competing in an indoor pentathlon meeting in Gateshead.
Commendations: Female (Voucher)	No	Caroline Gibby	Our next award goes to someone who has held multiple roles for the club, including Team Manager for U15s in T&F, XC and Indoor Sportshall. She is also great role model for our junior girls, competing as a masters lady in many of the Northern League, Grand Prix and Cheshire Championships for T&F, as well as Trail, XC and Road events. She'll literally have a go at anything. Our Female Commendation Award goes to Caroline Gibby, who unfortunately isn't here tonight as it's her 50th birthday party.
Commendations: Male (Voucher)	No	Ian Humphreys
Best Cross Country Performance at Cheshire Championships (The Arthur Evans Memorial Plate and mini keepsake shield - engraved)	Yes	Joseph Onaj
Track &amp; Field Endorse (Barbara Murray Trophy and mini keepsake shield - engraved)	Yes	Archie Guest	Our next award epitomises the positive attitude and team spirit we hope for in our junior track and field athletes. Last year he represented the club in nearly all 10x league matches, every Grand Prix meeting, Indoor Sportshall and the Cheshire Champs. His dedication and commitment to training makes him a pleasure to coach and his warm and friendly nature have made him a popular member of the U13s team.
Female Endurance (The Brian Kemp Memorial Trophy - Running Shoe and mini keepsake shield - engraved)	Yes	Rebecca Tili
Male Endurance (The Brian Kemp Memorial Trophy - Running Shoe and mini keepsake shield - engraved)	Yes	Rub Giffins
Notable Individual Performance (voucher)	Yes	Fiona Blagg
Contribution to the Club (The Betty Sadell Memorial Trophy and (mini keepsake trophy - engraved)	Yes	Alison Hartopp
Team of the Year Award (Engraved Shield and medals)	No	Cheshire Road Grand Prix Ladies' Team
Athlete of the Year Bob & Pauline Lynch Plate (Perpetual Plate and Voucher)	No	Gus Fisher	Now to our final special award. This athlete has continued to build on their 2024 successes with some fantastic performances in middle distance on the track, winning silver medals in the Cheshire Championships at both 800m and 1500m. He finished the 2023 T&F season ranked 19th in the UK for his age group at 1200m. At the national road relays he ran the 4th fastest leg. Over the winter he has stepped up a gear, with some fine performances in the North Staffs XC League, won gold at the Northern XC Championships and finally a silver medal at the national XC Championships. So, it's with great pleasure that I'd like to invite Gus Fisher to come and receive the Athlete of the Year Award.
